THE NEED

Nearly one in four young people (23%) consistently experience feelings of loneliness, reporting that they always or often feel isolated.

Youth loneliness significantly affects young persons' mental health and overall life satisfaction. Frequent feelings of loneliness are closely associated with poorer mental health outcomes and lower levels of life satisfaction among these young Canadians. Conversely, a strong sense of belonging and support from social connections can greatly enhance their overall happiness and well-being.

THE SOLUTION

We have already been working diligently to support youth by providing safe spaces, adult mentorship, holistic care, and opportunities for youth to give back.

We believe the foundation of this support is the relational strength our youth experience.

According to the Search Institute's Developmental Relationships Framework in 2020, through these Developmental relationships, young people discover who they are, cultivate abilities to shape their own lives and learn how to engage with and contribute to the world around them.

THE IMPACT

"It's nice to see an adult that likes me." - Anonymous

"This place feels like home. It's safe, fun and I feel heard" - Blue, 17

"Youth Unlimited is somewhere that I actually feel safe and wanted. Even when home is not always a safe place, I know I can come here." - Katie, 16

"The Vault is a safe place and a Family. You helped me through tough times, I just want to say thank you." - Maddie, 16

With your help, we can make a profound difference in our community.
